David John Marsh FRPS HonPAGB 1934 - 2010

David Marsh, PAGB President 1991-1993, who died suddenly on Sunday 18th April following a stroke, was renowned not only for his mastery in the darkroom but also for his success as an international exhibitor. A Fellow of the Royal Photographic Society and a highly respected lecturer and judge, Dave was a great ambassador for the hobby, wholeheartedly supported by his wife Audrey. For a while the darkroom doubled up as a kitchen.

For half a century, he willingly dedicated much of his time to the administrative side of the hobby. He served on the Executive Committee of the L&CPU and also on the PAGB Committee in many capacities and was instrumental in setting up the PAGB Public Liability Insurance scheme. He became President of the PAGB from 1991 to 1993 and was invited to serve as L&CPU President, not just once in 1980, but for a second time during the Centenary Years of 2005/6. He could never say no to any job that fell vacant and his name was placed on the L&CPU Roll of Honour in 1991. He was awarded the APAGB, and later, the J.S. Lancaster Medal for Excellent Service to the PAGB and the HonPAGB.

His skills also extended into journalism, when for a number of years he was the Editor of the L&CPU 'Focal Points' and the PAGB Newsletter. He took on the mammoth task of researching and producing the L&CPU Centenary Book in which, with his usual self-effacement, Dave refused permission for his own achievements to be recorded. He took an active part in the planning, installation of the Centenary Exhibition at each and every venue on its two-year tour around the L&CPU, attending every Official Opening and giving his illustrated talk on the History of Photography.

He was a master at slide copying and every year he copied the hundreds of slides required for the PAGB Exhibitions, the L&CPU folios with such skill that they were often difficult to tell from the originals. Other Federations noted this and before long he was also hard at work producing their sets of Exhibition slides.

Recently Dave decided that he had accomplished everything he had striven for in photography. Competition no longer held any appeal. He had served his time in the administrative sphere and quietly retreated from all associated activities. He returned his L&CPU regalia to the Union together with a few prints for the archive just a few weeks ago.

Dave was a good man. He will be very greatly missed for his dedication to our hobby and for his friendship. Our thoughts are with Audrey.

With thanks to Doug Couzens, Lytham St. Annes and John Smith, L&CPU Communications Officer

APRIL 2010 AWARDS FOR PHOTOGRAPHIC MERIT

The April 2010 APM were hosted in a most excellent fashion by the EAF in Harlow and this issue contains the full list of successes at all three levels.

This Adjudication was not just notable for its efficient and cheerful organisation but also for the high standard of the entries. I was struck by the number of successful entries from Wales – something very positive is obviously going on there – and by the presence of a determined raiding party from the Isle of Man, some participating and some checking the standard for future entries. As usual a number of married couples were successful although, unfortunately, in more than one case the wife passed whilst the husband did not – they weren't always competing at the same level. I'm sure the ladies were gracious in victory. Better luck next time chaps!

After the relative rush of MPAGBs in November 2009 we returned to a more normal pass rate with just one very notable success. Kathryn Scolah, from Wigan 10 FC, joined the still exclusive list of Master Photographers of the PAGB with a superb panel of prints, most of which would have been familiar to you all from exhibition catalogues.

Along the Pier. Kathryn Scolah MPAGB

We experimented at Stirling in November photographing and projecting the prints for the benefit of the audience. This worked quite well but we did not repeat the experiment this time. It is simply not possible to fully reproduce the quality of the print on the screen and we felt that the viewers were being misinformed of the standard required. The APM committee will consider this further. We did display Kathryn's MPAGB Panel after the adjudication and this proved to be very popular. We will look at the possibility of doing more of this in future where the venue has space to do so. Once again the judges were available to advise entrants after the adjudication each day and those who took advantage declared it very beneficial.

Hon Life Vice Presidency for Ian Platt

Ian has given up his job as FIAP Liaison Officer and would, in the normal course of events have left the PAGB Executive. The PAGB AGM wisely pre-empted this by electing him as Hon. Life V.P. A fuller report will appear in the next issue.

Opinions expressed are not necessarily the opinions of The Photographic Alliance of Great Britain and the PAGB accepts no liability for any content.

Please forward e-news to anyone who would be interested and we would be delighted if you print it for your club notice board, etc.

**NEWS** -AN EXTRA ADJUDICATION- **NEWS****

The Awards for Photographic Merit continue to be extremely popular and applicants applying before the April event were faced with an 18-month wait before their entry could be assessed. Our policy is that nobody should have to wait more than one year so we have scheduled an extra one-day Adjudication in Houghton Village Hall, near Carlisle, on Saturday 4 December 2010.

This Adjudication, for Credit and Distinction, is being offered to applicants on a first come, first served basis and it is already more than 50% subscribed. Entrants and supporters will be welcome to attend but it will be a more informal event than usual with restricted speeches and no presentation of badges. In all other respects this will be a normal Adjudication. An excellent panel of Assessors has been appointed and the work will, of course, be judged to the normal exacting standards.

Each Federation normally hosts these events in turn but this event will be hosted by the PAGB and will be manned by volunteers from several local camera clubs rather than by the Northern Counties Photographic Federation.
