PAGB Awards Workshop

There will be a 'PAGB Funded' Awards Workshop on Sunday May 13th 2018, at Lacey Green.

The Workshop is for anyone considering entering for an Award (Credit, Distinction or Masters), especially when CACC hosts the assessments in November 2019. There will also be spaces for those wishing to observe, but not bringing work for advice.

The Advisors will be: Rod Wheelans MPAGB (Chairman of the Awards), Anne Greiner MPAGB, Richard Speirs DPAGB (Event Co-ordinator of the Awards), Gordon Jenkins APAGB (PAGB President), Don Byatt MPAGB and Chris Palmer DPAGB.

At 22/11/2017, there were:

- 24 places for advice
- more places to observe (only via car share with an advice booking)

All attendance, either for advice or to observe, must be booked in advance.

From Flash Powder to flickr: The Story of Hampstead Photographic Society

This book celebrates the 80th anniversary of Hampstead Photographic Society, one of Britain's oldest amateur camera clubs, and charts its journey through the massive changes in photography since it was founded in 1937. That year it was estimated that 250 million photographs would be exposed - "95% successfully". Now, an estimated 96 million images are shared every day on Instagram: amateur photography has never been so easy or so popular. The story of Hampstead Photographic Society unfolds against the cosmopolitan background of North London's arts community and reflects all its diversity. Photographs have become the lingua franca of social media, while camera clubs still help people improve their skills, and provide a place to share their passion for photography.

The paperback book is for sale on Amazon.co.uk for £19.99, but until Friday 15 December you can buy it for £16.47. (It is eligible for Amazon free delivery.) You can buy it at - https://www.amazon.co.uk/dp/1548756296/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&qid=1512498765&sr=8-1&keywords=flash+powder+to+flickr

The Awards for Photographic Merit Adjudication in Colchester and the Masters of Print Exhibition in London have really stretched the resources of your editor and others who are heavily involved in both. As a result, we are not able to compile the photographs from the APM for this issue but they are Coming Soon.

Sony UK

New images released to mark one month until deadline of 2018 Sony World Photography Awards

Sony UK - Dec 05, 2017 10:00 GMT

Sony World Photography Awards

- Images available at press.worldphoto.org
- All entries free at www.worldphoto.org

December 5, 2017: Photographers worldwide have just one month left to enter the 11th edition of the Sony World Photography Awards. To mark this deadline, the World Photography Organisation, the creators of the Awards, today releases a new selection of entries from the Open competition. Submitted by photographers from around the world, the images cover a wide variety of topics, from stunning aerial shots to intimate portraits and animals in the wild.

The Sony World Photography Awards are widely recognised as one of the world's leading photography competitions, with many of its shortlisted and winning photographers gaining global exposure and recognition. Past shortlisted photographer Simon Butterworth said, "It's impossible to overstate the importance of this achievement to my career, the global coverage was amazing, in fact, interest in my work as a direct result of the awards continues to this day." All entries to the Awards are free at www.worldphoto.org/swpa.
