Unfortunately, there were no MPAGB assessments this time.

Congratulations to everyone who succeeded and commiserations to those who fell short this time. Most of the latter had good pictures with just a few which didn't make the grade. Look at your results, take good advice and please try again.

AWARDS FOR PHOTOGRAPHIC MERIT(APM) WORKSHOPS

The PAGB offers Advisory Workshops to Federations on a regular basis and you can read more at http://www.thepagb.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/apm_leaflet_3.pdf. Workshops are in hand in the Welsh Photographic Federation in July, the East Anglian Federation in August and in Scotland in November 2023. Watch out for details in e-news and in your Federation newsletter and website.

Rod Wheelans MPAGB has an informative APM presentation that can be booked by Clubs under normal lecture conditions. Details in your Handbook or in our CES Administration directory at <https://pagbhost.co.uk/main/main.php>.

You may also take advantage of the PAGB Online Mentoring Service but check first that you don't have a more local mentoring service run by your own Federation. Read about the PAGB service at <http://www.thepagb.org.uk/awards/apm-advice-service/>
